Arguably the most famous and well known race in the world is Barcelona and being a lover of long distance pigeons I am a little bias, but when you talk with all the long distance fanciers in Europe they all want to win Barcelona. It's a special race and many famous birds have found their origins here. The race of 2022 was a true test of a champion with tough headwinds. So I wanted to get something off birds that performed well from this race and went on the search. The Van Houten family won 1st International Barcelona in the past and in 2022 Wim van Houten won with a special hen named "Wish" 15th National Barcelona her second Barcelona prize in a row. I am happy to announce that a son of their 15th National Barcelona winner will be coming to the USA
